

Grade 7 Social and Emotional Thinking

UNIT GOALS

The specific goals of this unit are for students to:

- work towards demonstrating respect for the individuality of others and empathise with others in local, national and global contexts, acknowledging the diversity of individuals.
- understand resilience and demonstrates appropriate strategies to develop resilience
- give examples of different situations where resilience has been demonstrated
- demonstrate respect for the individuality of others and empathise with others in local, national and global contexts, acknowledging the diversity of individuals.

UNIT OVERVIEW

- Sense of Self
- Sense of Others

ASSESSMENT DETAILS

Students are not required to complete a formal assessment but they are required to demonstrate attainment of Unit Goals within the individual's fullest potential. This understanding will be evidenced through contribution to group work activities, individual participation and class projects.