PRIMARY SCHOOL NEWS

What a wonderful week it has been at AIS! A big thank you to Year 3A for their fantastic assembly this morning. Your confidence, creativity, and teamwork were a joy to watch.

Our Preschool students enjoyed an exciting excursion to Pizza Hut, where they discovered how pizzas are made and created their own delicious masterpieces.

We were also thrilled to welcome Nord Anglia School Jakarta for a friendly netball afternoon the very first time AIS Primary has played netball against another school. The students showed excellent sportsmanship and enthusiasm, making it a memorable experience for everyone involved.

Another highlight was our Primary Swim Carnival, which ran across Tuesday and Wednesday after a sudden storm cut Day 1 short. Despite the thunder, lightning, and torrential rain, the students' spirits remained high. A huge thank you to Jessica for organising such a fabulous event and to all our parents who came along to cheer and support it truly added to the atmosphere.

As we near the end of term, there is still plenty happening. Next week, Year 3 will be heading to Mini Mania in Bogor as part of their HASS unit, an engaging trip that will help bring their geography learning to life.

Finally, don't forget that our Christmas Bazaar is coming up next Saturday. This much-loved PnF event is always a highlight, so be sure to get your tickets early!

Have a lovely weekend, everyone.

Year 2 EAL- Persuasive Text

Year 2 EAL introduction to persuasive text started with discussion about some of the things that we think are important, such as: reading is the best hobby a child could have, children should receive pocket money, birthday parties should be banned, or whether children should donate their Christmas presents. While this discussion has helped the students to generate their personal, persuasive ideas, it also revealed the purpose of persuasive text: to convince others of our point of view.

Next, we examined persuasive text samples and analysed its structure. Persuasive text begins with an introduction stating the author's point of view with brief supporting reasons. The body paragraphs then elaborates on these reasons with explanation and evidence. Lastly, the conclusion finalises the text with the author restating the point of view, and summarises the reasons using varied language.

Summer Is the Best Season of the Year

Summer is without a doubt the best season of the year. I strongly believe that it is better than all of the other seasons because summertime is the perfect time for fun family adventures, the toastiest foods and, of course, the very best weather.

Firstly, summer is great for spending time outside as the weather is warm and sunny, so it is perfect for visits to the beach or for swimming in a pool. You might also like to go for a bike ride or play outside in the sunshine.

Additionally, summer here in Australia includes Christmas, which means lots of fun time with family and friends. The school holidays are also a great time to get away for a family holiday, to discover new things and new places.

Finally, I am sure you can agree that summertime is the perfect time for delicious treats like ice cream or frozen slushy drinks. These tasty treats are not nearly as enjoyable in the colder seasons.

In conclusion, summer offers the best sunny weather, the perfect opportunity for spending fun time with friends and family as well as super yummy frozen treats for everyone to enjoy. Therefore, summer is most definitely the best season of the year.

The world's best animal is ...

Butterflies are the best animal in the world. The best animal in the world should be interesting and beautiful. Butterflies look amazing and they have many features that no other animal has.

Butterflies are beautiful. They have four wings. Every butterfly has a different pattern and colors on its wings. Some butterflies are so special that people travel to places just to see them. The Monarch butterfly has beautiful bright blue patterns on its wings. People travel to Mexico to see these butterflies just to see a Monarch butterfly.

Butterflies have a special life cycle. Most animals hatch out of eggs or are born live but caterpillars hatch from eggs, grow bigger, then change inside a chrysalis into beautiful butterflies. Some insects change as they grow. Like a tadpole changes into a frog, but it doesn't change into a frog-like frog. Some insects like bees change from a pupa into a bee, but bees sting you. So they aren't as good as butterflies.

Butterflies don't hurt anyone or anything. They help nature. When they fly from flower to flower, they take pollen from one plant to another. So they are helping the plants.

Butterflies are very pretty and helpful so that is why butterflies are the best animal in nature.

Dear Mom and Dad,

I know where we should go for our summer vacation—to beautiful Colorado. There are rushing rivers and gurgling streams. The Rocky Mountains touch the sky. There are forests of trees and gigantic boulders.

If we go to Colorado, it won't cost too much. We can drive there and camp in national parks in our new tent. We can cook out every night.

Best of all, there is something for everybody to do in Colorado. Dad, you can fish. Mom, you can hike in the mountains. Jody and I can ride our mountain bikes there. Don't you think Colorado would be great?

Your daughter,

Ally

We also learned words and phrases that are essential to writing persuasive:

- emotive phrases, phrases that are put together to express and evoke an audience's emotion and are used in the introduction paragraph when we introduce our point of view. For example: I strongly believe that..., It is clear that..., It is so important...
- sequencing words at the beginning of each supporting reason: firstly, secondly, additionally, finally.
- 'In conclusion' is a phrase that signals the end and the conclusion of the persuasive text. Moreover, summary transition phrases restate our point of view in the conclusion paragraph, that include: therefore, for these reasons, in light of the evidence,..

Summer is without a doubt the best season of the year. I strongly believe that it is better than all of the other seasons because summertime is the perfect time for fun family adventures, the tastiest foods and, of course, the very best weather.

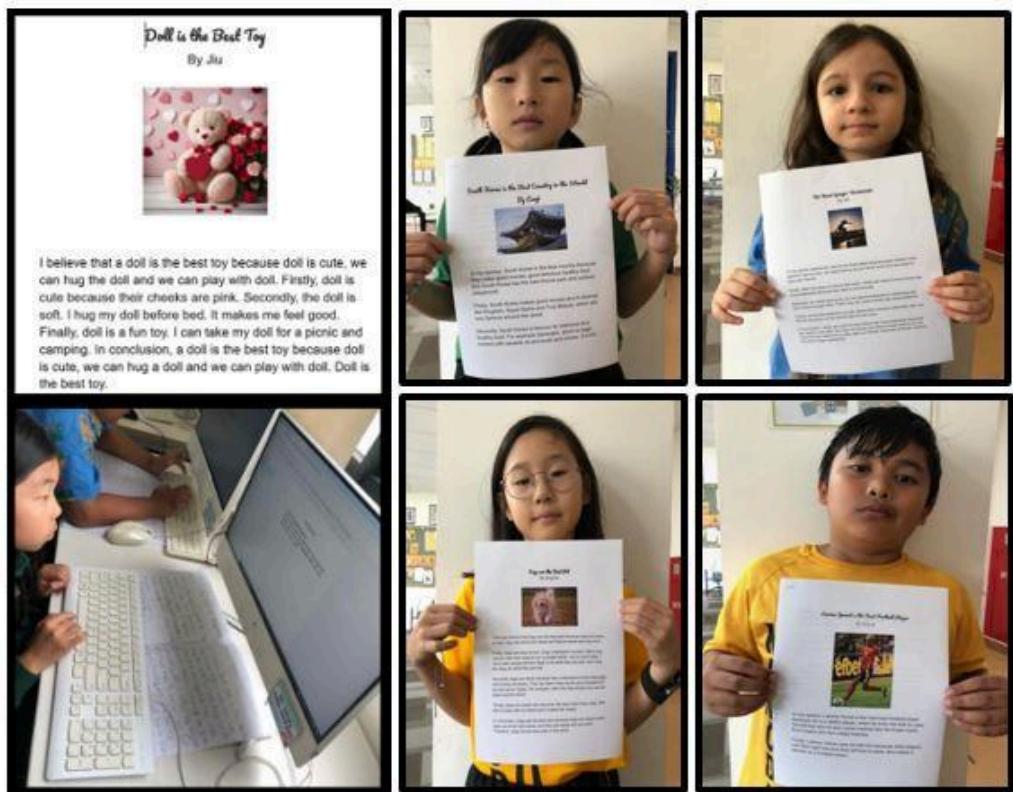

Firstly, summer is great for spending time outside as the weather is warm and sunny, so it is perfect for visits to the beach or for swimming in a pool. You might also like to go for a bike ride or play outside in the sunshine.

Once students decided their topics, they went on to plan their persuasive texts. With their creative ideas, they worked on their persuasive text to convince us that: Weekends Should be Three Days Long, Dogs Are the Best Pet to Have, South Korea is the Best Country, Doll is the Best Toy and Lamine Yamal is Next Best Football Player.

We saw again how talented and creative they are through their musical performances, take a bow Jerico, Nayla, Yoojune and Xavier for their blues, Michelle, Annisa, Fara, Venezia and Nicole for their beautiful song and the whole year group for their performance of 'Everybody Wants To Rule The World'. Mischa put together a short video celebrating their time in school, you can see it here. Jericho spoke very movingly about his time in the school and Milly gave a send off to the year from Year 11 and the rest of the students, Nicole, Michelle and Annisa MC-ed for the assembly as our three students who have been at AIS the longest, having joined us in Preschool. Year 12 will be much missed by everyone here at school and I am looking forward to our Graduation ceremony this evening.

I have been really pleased to see how many of the students have taken their assessments in their stride. The atmosphere on the 4th floor has been calm and purposeful during the assessments. Students will receive their results in lessons in Week 9 and written reports on the Semester will be sent home after the end of term.

I'd like to end by wishing all of our athletes the best of luck for the AISA games next week. We will be thinking of them and hope that they enjoy the experience of the games in Hong Kong.

Art Auction & Raffle: Appreciation and Contribution

Along with this year's Art Auction, a new addition to the extravaganza was the Art Raffle. To recap, the Art Auction featured six artworks, four from Years 7-10 and two from our Year 11 and 12 students, which were auctioned off with great enthusiasm by Mr. David Kessel. Individual artworks from Year 11 student Sara and Year 12 student Michelle received Certificates of Appreciation for their contribution. Proceeds from the auction went to the Panti Asuhan Yos Sudarso orphanage.

(Image- Auction artworks: Y7 Artwork, Y8 Artwork, Y10 Artwork, Y9 Artwork)

The Art Raffle added an extra element of fun, with one guest (Ms. Ballantyne) winning a student artwork created through a collage-design project exploring imagery, shape, composition, and design principles. The student (Adam) also received a Certificate of Appreciation for his participation.

With continued teamwork and creative thinking, arts events and activities like these will keep growing and improving each year.

Thank You,

The atmosphere was celebratory, with the Year 12 players clearly enjoying their last competitive moments together. A big thank you goes to the younger students who supported the event: Blubelle (Y9), Adam (Y9), Zarif (Y7), Rain (Y7), Danial (Y8), Darwisy (Y11), Hasnul (Y9), and Rayyan (Y8). Additionally, we offer our deepest appreciation to our Year 12 stars—Annisa, Nicole, Michelle, Nayla, Venezia, Ayane, and Kevin—for their dedication and contribution to the AIS Volleyball program over the past three years.

We wish all our Year 12 students the very best of luck in their next adventure.
