Week 2 Highlights

Challenging yet rewarding week of learning for our Year 12s as they continued and concluded their mock examinations. What was the standout here is how well our Class of 2026 have conducted themselves, not out of the ordinary for this mature and determined cohort of young people, but impressive nonetheless. Well done Class of 2026 and thank you to our Year 12 parents for their support. We saw the first leadership meetings on the agenda this week with Ministries and SRC planning out what will no doubt be a rewarding and connected term of events. Some great fundraising ideas and we are definitely planning something special for Teacher Appreciation & Father's Day celebrations. With our Taipans Cup, Primary Art Show, High School Production, High School Activities Week not to mention our Indonesian Independence Day celebrations, it's going to be a great term of learning in lots of ways, not just in our classrooms. Have a great weekend!

Please note in our coming week we have our PNF General Meeting. As a parent of AIS Jakarta you are welcome to attend. Just to ensure we have selected appropriate space, please let me know (dean.cummins@ais-indonesia.com) if you are attending. The meeting will start at 10.15am.

Bake Sale Fundraising

A green poster for a Bake Sale Fundraising event. On the left, a circular inset shows the Venezuelan flag waving against a sunset sky. The main text on the right reads 'Bake Sale Fundraising' in large white letters, followed by '04th August 2026' in a yellow oval. Below this, a paragraph states: 'In support of our Venezuelan community, we would like to invite our students to a special bake sale dedicated to the venezuelans affected by the earthquakes that happened last 24th June'. A yellow 'Recess Time' sign with a clock icon is positioned below the text. At the bottom left, a white box says 'All proceeds go to global citizen.org/Venezuela'. At the bottom right, it says 'Supported by AIS and SRC' next to an image of a cupcake with white frosting, chocolate drizzle, and a red cherry.
